

Mother's Day was celebrated in the campus of Bal Sahyog on 8th May, 2016 with active support from "Mother's Recipe" a CSR wing of Desai Brothers Limited (Food Division). More than 30 mothers were present on the occasion to give a feeling of motherly love to the orphan and vulnerable children in Bal Sahyog Children's Home. They organised drawing and painting, dance and song as well as many fun activities with the children where all of the mothers, volunteers and the children participated. The mothers cooked some delicious foods for children and all the participants had their lunch together with children. The mothers included Ms. Manjula Jain, Ms. Anjana Sindhi, Ms. Ritu Kausik, Ms. Pooja Mahajan, Ms. Sharmila Batra, Ms. Priya Lokhwani, Mrs. Ankita Ali, Mrs. Purabi Dutta Chowdhuary, Ms. Pyari. S. Nair, Ms. Kavita Narayanan, Ms. Aastha Sindhi, Dr. Ms. Grover and Ms. Savita Narayanan and many more. Mrs. Seema. B. Verma, Senior Editor, The Hindu, was also present with her husband and shared her love and affection with the children and participated in the programme till the end.

Mr. Rajasekhar YVVJ, Director, Enforcement Department, NDMC, New Delhi, also participated in the programme and appreciated the work of the organisation. The entire team of Bal Sahyog was present on the occasion and extended all help and cooperation to the organizers and the mothers who had come from different far off locations of Delhi for the occasion. The programme started at 8 am in the morning at continued till 4 pm. Mr. Manish Kumar Gupta from Desai Brothers Ltd. coordinated the entire programme well. Find below some interesting photographs of the occasion.

